

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

NEW LONDON COUNTY

UNCASVILLE

Methodist Sunday School Picnic Today—Birth-day Celebration—Oil for the State Road Arrives—Charles McDougal's Funeral.

Dr. and Mrs. Morton E. Fox are entertaining Mrs. Vernon and Miss Marion Henson of Paterson, N. J.

Picnic Today.

The Methodist Sunday school has decided to hold its annual picnic on the land of Clyde M. Beebe today (Saturday). At a meeting at the home of Mr. Beebe the following committees were appointed: On sports, C. M. Beebe, chairman, Ernest Noble, Robert Dadds, Earl Holmes, Earl Smith, Harry Hartley and Charles Mite. Mrs. William B. Walden is to have charge of the lemonade; Mrs. Charles Hope, sandwiches, cake and fruit. Miss Ethel Corbett, special committee on sports for young women.

Miss Alice Campbell, who has been spending the week with friends in Pequot, has returned to New Haven. Mrs. Charles Hope entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon. Plans for the summer and fall work were made.

Miss Stella Coen has returned home after two weeks spent with friends in Arlington, Mass.

Edward Chappell was badly bruised by a kick from one of the horses which he drives for the Palmer Brothers' company. Although able to return to work, his injuries cause him considerable inconvenience.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. William Vallett entertained a few friends and their children Saturday afternoon, it being the third birthday of her little daughter, Marion. Those present were Mrs. Clarence E. Walden and daughters, Marjorie and Carol, of Boston, Miss Margaret Joyce of Noank, Misses Margaret and Henry Sullivan, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. Henry Richards. Refreshments were served.

Truman Keyes moved his household goods from Norwich to his cottage in this place Friday.

Miss Elsie Hale of Willimantic spent the week with local friends.

On Fishing Trip.

Saturday Frank B. Mitchell left town in his motor boat with a party aboard for a fishing trip off Shelter Island. Included in the party are Charles Johnson, Ernest Johnson, Bertman Edmonds, Victor Rosenlund, Charles Chubb, George Clough, Fitch Rogers, Frank Richards, C. Everett Chapman, George N. Wood, 2d, Ivan Chapman and John Jones. Miss Ida Cushing, Miss Bridget Kelly, Miss Addie Moran, Miss Addie Miller, Miss Mabel Craig are spending this week at Watch Hill.

The Edwards place, situated near Haughton's Cove, has been purchased by Conklin Smith of New London. Miss Barbara Corbett is spending this week with her sister in Brattleboro, Vt.

Mrs. Clark Hummel left Tuesday to visit relatives in New York. The large tank car used for oiling the state road through this village arrived at the Central Vermont railroad station and were being unloaded Friday. Sand for covering has been distributed along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Leander Chapel have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. George Clough of Palmer, Mass. Roscoe C. Clark is spending this week in camp at Mumfords Cove.

Mrs. Lee and daughter, Margaret Lee, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dyer at Hill Top, have returned to Paterson, N. J. Julian Church has a new motor boat. Mrs. James Fitzgerald is entertaining Mrs. James F. Sullivan of Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Morgan and children of Natick visited friends in town Sunday.

Funeral of Charles McDougal.

The death of Charles McDougal occurred Monday. He was about 43 years of age. His funeral took place Tuesday.

VOLUNTOWN.

Court Liberty Holds Social—State Organizer McGrath Addresses Court Advance.

On Saturday evening a pleasant social was held in Union hall under the auspices of Court Liberty, No. 132, F. of A. The evening was well attended. The program consisted of five pieces furnished music and Albro prompted.

On Saturday the Turtles journeyed to Canochet, R. I., and were defeated by the team of that place. Score, Canochet 12, Voluntown 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bromley and family spent Saturday and Sunday at Beach Pond.

On Sunday a party of twelve young ladies from the village spent the day at Beach Pond.

State Organizer Speaks.

On Thursday evening Court Advance, No. 3328, Independent Order of Foresters, held an open meeting in Union hall which was largely attended. Brother James J. McGrath, state organizer for Rhode Island and Connecticut, addressed those present in an able manner, explaining the benefits of membership in this growing organization. Harmonic orchestra of five pieces rendered several selections in their usual pleasing manner under the direction of William Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. William LeClair of Taftville were guests on Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. LeClair's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dalgarno.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jemison of Norwich visited relatives in this town on Sunday.

Miss Alice Clark of New York is the guest of her sister, Miss Mary E. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Generous of Jewett City were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Generous' parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaChapelle.

Mrs. Emma Nichols and children, Walter and Iola, are guests of Mrs. Nichols' parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaChapelle.

PRESTON

The Congregational Sunday school held a picnic at the beach last Saturday. There was a good attendance. J. C. Atterbury resumed his work at the United States Finishing company's plant Monday after two weeks' vacation.

Miss Laura Peckham and Master Lester and Robert Peckham of Norwich are visiting at Robert Peckham's, Edward Hollowell has purchased a new automobile.

HANOVER

Gallup-Johnson Wedding—Kindly Aid for Grief-Stricken Levine Family—Ball Game With Lebanon Today.

Miss Gladys Crombie has returned from a visit to Boston.

Miss Florence Hope of Providence has had a vacation at home.

Miss Jennie Gallup has spent the week at Oak Bluffs, Martha's Vineyard.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Adams of Boston are at home for a vacation.

Miss Edith Peck is visiting in North Bannington, Vt.

The Ladies' Missionary society met Thursday afternoon at the home of Waldo Bingham. Miss Carrie Gallup prepared the programme.

Mr. and Miss Price of Brooklyn, N. Y., have been guests at Fullerton, Me.

Gallup-Johnson.

On Friday evening, July 21, at the Baptist parsonage, Auburn, R. I., Miss Ella Johnson and Winfred Gallup were united in marriage. They are now the guests of Benjamin S. Gallup.

The families of Frank Still, Mrs. Franklin, Frederick Blackburn and Francis Hill are moving into the new tenements just completed.

Mrs. Brownell leaves this week for Franklin, Mass.

Mrs. Hardy and son of New York are with the family of William McDonald.

D. P. Warwick, the superintendent, is spending his vacation in Newport, Me.

Sympathy for Afflicted Parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Anselm Levine expressed their gratitude to the neighbors in Hanover for the sympathy and help given them in their recent affliction. The undertaker's bill here has been met by popular subscription.

Montville Won.

The Airlee team was defeated in Montville last Sunday by a score of 13 to 7. The game this afternoon will be played in Lebanon.

Mrs. Anton Amadon and niece Bertha are visiting Mrs. Norman Smith.

Norwich Speakers.

George E. Hyde and Stanley Gay of Norwich Town will speak at the Sunday evening meeting in the Congregational church.

NORTH STONINGTON

Friends Meet After Fifty Years—Addresses by Rev. J. S. Porter.

Mrs. George W. Tryon has returned from two weeks' absence in Danbury, where she attended the library institute.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Adams arrived home Wednesday from an absence of ten days in Lubeck, Me., where they were called by the death of Mrs. Adams' mother.

Mrs. George H. Stone is visiting in Middletown.

Met After Fifty Years.

Jerome B. Baldwin of Willimantic was in town Thursday to attend the funeral of Col. James F. Brown. Mr. Baldwin called on Rev. Lucian Drury, an old-time friend. The two men had not met for fifty years and found much of interest to talk about.

Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Augusta Ray of Jewett City were in town last week.

Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Chapman of Milbury, Mass., called on friends here this week.

Rev. J. S. Porter Speaks.

Rev. J. S. Porter of Prague, Austria, spent Sunday as the guest of Rev. F. M. Holter, a missionary classmate. Mr. Porter, who is a missionary in Prague, spoke in the Congregational church Sunday morning, and in the Baptist church, giving an interesting account of his labors in Austria.

The Ladies' society of the Baptist church planned a lawn tea for Friday afternoon.

GOSHEN

Crops Benefited by Rain—Cricket Foretells Summer's End—Picnic—Huckleberry Party.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckley of Norwich spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Miss Hattie M. York has been spending a few days at Sound View beach, Woodmont.

Miss Ethel Clark of Willimantic is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles L. Hinckley.

B. R. York has purchased an 8-horsepower gasoline engine.

Rain Saves Corn Crop. The soaking rain on Monday saved the corn crop, and was worth its weight in gold. The sound of the fall cricket, heard now and then, is a reminder that the good old summer time will soon be ended.

William Church and family moved to Uncasville Thursday. Mr. Church has secured employment in the new paper mill in that place.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Burr and family of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending a few days at the home of Rev. Marcus Burr.

Some picturesque post card scenery of the Thousand Islands, Alexandria Bay, N. Y., were received from friends there, this week.

Huckleberry Party.

A company from this place went on a huckleberrying trip up to Wells' woods, Columbia, on Tuesday. A basket picnic was enjoyed and a good lot of berries was secured.

FITCHVILLE

Humane Agent Warns Owner of Feeble Horse—Baptist Sunday School Excursion to Ocean Beach.

Wednesday night Deputy Humane Agent Asa M. Miller forbade a Jewish farmer named Dalmazy of Bozrahville to drive a horse which is very much in need of nourishment and rest. The farmer promised to turn the horse out to pasture.

Baptist Sunday School Excursion. It is thought that about 150 will be in the excursion of the Baptist Sunday school today (Saturday) to Ocean Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frink of Hartford were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thompson.

Misses May Foley and Rosa Marra were in Norwich Sunday.

Miss Mary E. McCarthy spent Wednesday in Hartford.

Misses Mary and Kathryn Sullivan spent the week end with relatives in Norwich.

Mrs. Napoleon Eastland is spending several days with relatives in Douglas, Mass.

Miss Essey Popham of Pleasure Beach was calling on friends in the village Tuesday.

FRANKLIN

NEW LONDON COUNTY
Rev. H. A. Beadle Resigns—After Eleven Years' Pastorate—Auto-bilists Overseeing—General News.

Rev. Charles H. Peck of Hanover preached at the Congregational church on Sunday morning. During the service Mr. Peck read a letter of resignation from the past, Rev. Harry A. Beadle, which was deeply regretted by all. Mr. Beadle's pastorate here has been nearly eleven years, in which time he has made many friends. He has the best wishes of the entire community as he enters his new pastorate.

Charles Sharpe of Hartford is the guest of Louis Smith.

Rev. Harry A. Beadle is spending the week in Hartford.

Mrs. Elmer Engstrom and Mrs. Carl Sundell of South Windham were calling on local friends on Wednesday.

Speeding on Local Roads. Montville is not the only town that can boast of fast running automobiles. One ran on the turnpike here the past week at the rate of 60 miles an hour.

Miss Daisy Parker of New London called on local relatives Friday.

Miss Faith Gager was a week end guest of friends in New London.

Miss Susie Palmer has returned to Walpole, Mass., after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Ladd.

Mrs. Clifford H. Robinson entertained Mrs. John Potter on Thursday.

Fred Johnson was in Norwich Saturday.

Miss Florence Grow has returned to Boston after being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith.

Miss Lucy Hyde was in Norwich Sunday.

Mrs. Abbie Speeler and Miss Lillie Johnson spent two days in Boston the past week.

Henry and Fred Risley were in Versailles Sunday calling on Frank Yerlington.

Mrs. Edgar Tucker and daughter, Miss Edith Tucker, of Lebanon were callers at Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Gager's Tuesday.

Miss Susie Pitkins has returned to Hartford after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd.

Henry Giddings, who has been working in Mystic, is home for a few weeks.

Frank Hyde was in Norwich Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Sharpe of Hartford is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Willimantic were callers at S. N. Hyde's Sunday.

Miss Ellen Leonard has been spending the week in Northampton, Mass.

Spent Social Evening. John Engstrom entertained a few neighbors Sunday evening. During the evening there were several piano solos by William Ohman of South Windham and violin solos by Asel Engstrom, accompanied by Mr. Ohman.

Fred Orman of Norwich spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hyde.

Sunday morning at the Congregational church Fred Orman sang the solo piece to the hymn, "We are greatly enjoyed by all. Miss Florence Hoffman accompanied on the organ.

LEDYARD

Baptist Sunday School Plans Picnic—Grange to Observe Children's Night—Funeral of Lafayette Griswold.

Mrs. Arthur Robinson, who has been staying several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Karol, has returned to her home in Ledyard.

Miss Florence Geer has returned after staying several days with Miss Olive Hiseock at Crescent Beach.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. White returned from Hartford, giving an interesting account of his labors in Austria.

The Ladies' society of the Baptist church planned a lawn tea for Friday afternoon.

LEFFINGWELL

Sunshine Band Enjoys Picnic at Gardner Lake—Notes.

The Misses Lucille and Helen Stephenson of Norwich were recent guests of Mrs. George Nolan.

Mrs. George Hall has returned to her home in New Britain, after visiting her brother, Frank Harris, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Browning of Rehoboth, Mass., formerly of this place, will among the congregation at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Miss Gertrude Ward, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Harry Wilcox of Jewett City, was at her home in this place over Sunday.

Mrs. Merton O. Swan, Frances and Mildred Swan were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushnell of the Old Canterbury turnpike. Miss May Bushnell accompanied them home to spend the day.

Mr. Robert Champlin and daughter, Miss Grace, spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. Charles Leffingwell.

The Sunshine Band held their annual picnic at Adam's Grove, Gardner Lake, Wednesday. The members, with a few of their friends, numbering 18, started early in the morning in a big team driven by Rev. L. Beard. The day was spent in bathing, boating and playing games. At noon all sat down to a tempting dinner. In the afternoon all visited Camp Centerville where were shown about by one of the young men, Mr. C. Thomas Leffingwell was the champion of the party. The happy crowd started for home in the evening.

OAKDALE

Home-Comers for Summer Visits—Sermon by Rev. H. T. Arnold.

Rev. H. T. Arnold preached in the Congregational church Sunday from I John 1: 3. Guests of Mother.

Rev. W. S. Beard of Willimantic and his brother, E. C. Beard, of Flushing, N. Y., spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. M. A. Beard, at the home of their uncle, F. F. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ross of Leffingwell visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Reynolds.

Leonard Schofield of Providence was calling on his cousins, Charles and Benjamin Schofield, the first of the week.

SADIE VISITING IN NORWICH.

Mrs. B. F. Comstock and daughter Hope of Montpelier, Vt., have been spending a few days in Norwich at the home of Mrs. Comstock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Williams, of Asylum street.

BETHEL

Rev. G. D. Stanley will exchange pulpits with Rev. Frank Chamberlain on July 30.

Miss Laura Young has been spending a few days in Stonington.

NORTH FRANKLIN.

Norwich Guest Sings at Congregational Church—Vacation Outings of Local People.

Miss Florence Hoffman played for a social dance Friday evening held at Smith's Mills.

Halsey Gallup of Norwich is visiting George and Albert Beckwith on Lebanon road.

Solo by Norwich Guest.

Fred J. Ortmann of Norwich spent Sunday with Herbert Hoffman. Mr. Ortmann was at one time a resident of North Franklin and pleased his many friends by rendering a solo at the Franklin church.

Motored from Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Whitcomb and son of Andover, Mr. and Mrs. Barber of Hartford and Mrs. Smith and daughter of Philadelphia spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rockwood. The party made the trip from Andover in Mr. Whitcomb's auto.

Herbert D. Simpson has moved from Meeting House Hill to Smith's Corners where he will enter the employ of George Avery.

Mrs. Charles Shum and son, all of Hartford, spent the early part of this week with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith.

Mrs. Holden Arnold and two sons of Hartford spent Sunday with Mrs. Reuben Manning.

Mrs. Fred H. Race, Miss Florence Hoffman and Grace and Ella Rockwood spent Tuesday at Westford.

Mrs. H. M. Race is in Plainville visiting her sister, Mrs. A. N. Clark.

Miss Susan Carrell of Providence spent Sunday with Mrs. A. A. Browning.

Ethel Randall of Goshen spent this week with her aunt, Mrs. Reuben Manning.

Mrs. Etta Watson has gone to Jewett City for two weeks' visit.

At Pleasure Beach.

Huntington Lathrop is at Pleasure Beach for a few days' outing.

Miss Burnham of Hampton is visiting Mrs. George Starkweather.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rogers have returned from two weeks' visit in New York and are now visiting Mrs. Antone Hastings.

Miss Mary Daniels is at Fisher's Island for a week's vacation.

SALEM

Norwich Preacher at Local Church—Briefs and Personals.

Rev. L. W. Frink of Norwich preached an excellent sermon in the Congregational church Sunday morning from the text Revelation 2: 20.

Mrs. Cora Hanney led an unusually interesting Endeavor service in the evening.

Personal Items.

Mrs. Charles S. Ray and son Clyde have returned from a visit with Mrs. Ray's mother, Mrs. M. R. Stegfield, of Colchester.

Mrs. Charles Gordon and sons, Milton and Chester, of Montville Center visited relatives in town last Sunday.

Henry Tisdale of New London has been spending his vacation with other members of his family at his summer home in town. Mr. Tisdale is making improvements to his place.

Visited Lyme.

Mrs. William Darling was in Lyme Saturday.

William Maynard and J. Frank Rogers were business callers in New London on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogers and daughter Helen, Mrs. Herbert Houston, Miss Leah Gifford, Miss Kittie Ray, Charles Ray and George Riggs were Norwich visitors during the week.

Mrs. Susie Rogers, Mrs. Edith Chadwick and son Frederic were visitors in North Lyme Tuesday.

Mrs. William Sisson and Mrs. Frances Tilton of North Plain visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Rogers.

Mrs. Jones and Gay of New London spent Sunday at Jewett City. Mr. Jones' cottage, Mr. Jones continues to add improvements to his place.

LEFFINGWELL

Sunshine Band Enjoys Picnic at Gardner Lake—Notes.

The Misses Lucille and Helen Stephenson of Norwich were recent guests of Mrs. George Nolan.

Mrs. George Hall has returned to her home in New Britain, after visiting her brother, Frank Harris, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Browning of Rehoboth, Mass., formerly of this place, will among the congregation at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Miss Gertrude Ward, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Harry Wilcox of Jewett City, was at her home in this place over Sunday.

Mrs. Merton O. Swan, Frances and Mildred Swan were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushnell of the Old Canterbury turnpike. Miss May Bushnell accompanied them home to spend the day.

Mr. Robert Champlin and daughter, Miss Grace, spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. Charles Leffingwell.

The Sunshine Band held their annual picnic at Adam's Grove, Gardner Lake, Wednesday. The members, with a few of their friends, numbering 18, started early in the morning in a big team driven by Rev. L. Beard. The day was spent in bathing, boating and playing games. At noon all sat down to a tempting dinner. In the afternoon all visited Camp Centerville where were shown about by one of the young men, Mr. C. Thomas Leffingwell was the champion of the party. The happy crowd started for home in the evening.

Mr. Albert Williams, the Misses Edna and Harriet Williams of Poquetanuck, and Fred Bailey of New London were recent guests of Mrs. Merton O. Swan. Miss Ella Williams remained and is spending several days with Miss Mildred Swan.

OLD MYSTIC

Order of Service at Union Meeting—Garden Party at Parsonage—Big Red Snake Killed—Personals.

There were no preaching services at the Baptist church Sunday.

</